Courier Journal.

THE PRESIDENCE MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 29.—It is understood that the President read his annual message in its completed form to the Cabinet to-day. It is stated that the most important feature of it is a recommendation to Congress for a general amnesty—in other words, for the removal of all political discollities imposed by the Four-teen the amendment.

TROOFS FOR GEOMGIA.

The Administration decided to-day to order troops into Georgia to sustain the civil authorities in the enforcement of the Congressional election law at the election in that State next month. A member of the Cablet, who doubted the propiety of this, expressed the fear that the result might be the man as it shabmar where leading rollithdians. ame as in Alabama, where leadi reached Washington to-day for the session.

SENATOR SUMBER

He took the carliest occasion to deny most explicitly the statement of a Chicago paper that he favored the formation of a new politiexparity. He had never intimated such a thing to any one, and believed it would prove an element of weskness to the Republican party. He says he has not recanted on the removal of Motley, but believes it was one of the most indiscret expedients of the Administration.

THE EUROPEAN COMPLEATIONS.

The Russian Minister, in commenting upon his advices from Europe, expressed the opinlon that there was no longer any danger of a general European war. He very emphatically contradicted the impression that there was an understanding between Russia and the Upited States on the pending questions between Russia and the other powers.

THE AVALICIOUS CENSUS MEN.

The cases of the Assistant Marshals whose account with Census Bureau show them to have been guilty of making fraudient entries, in order to increase the per capita composation allowed by law, are in the hands of the Attorney General, and instructions will accordingly be insued next week to the District Attorneys of the several counties in which they reside to institute proceedings against them and press for a conviction in every instance, in the returns made by one Assistant Marreade to institute proceedings against them and press for a conviction in every instance. In the returns made by one Assistant Marshal of West Virginia, the name of the same person is repeated seven times. Word having been sent him that his attempt at imposition had been discovered and the amount of compensasion claimed by him disallowed, he sought to excuse himself on the plea that the disputed name had been funished him at seven different houses, and that he had received it in good faith, not being aware at the time of the identity of the party. As the age given was exactly the same in each instance, the Department denied the plea, and he will be subject to prosecution. Other similar frauds have been perpetrated by assistant Marshals in the thinly settled districts of some Western States, but detection following, they will also be prosecuted. About seventeen cases are already on the table of the Attorney General, and five or six will soon be forwarded from the Census Bureau.

THE REVENUE COMMISSIONERSHIP.
General Ingalls has turned up here as one of the candidates for Internal Revenue Commissioner. The President is disposed, however, to appoint Deputy Donglass.

Infit town to night for Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the reunion of the Army of the Cumberland. He will be absent until Saturday.

THE CURRENCY DISTRIBUTION.

The smedments to the National Bank act

The smendments to the National Bank act enacted in July last authorized the issue of $55,000,000 additional currency in those States which had not already their quota of circulawhich had not already their quots of circulation, and then went on to provide that if this amount would not satisfy the different States twenty-five millions more should be taken from the States having an excess and redistributed. At that time the Western States were elamorous for more currency, and it was ascertained that the whole seventy-nine millions would be speedfly called for the West and South; but up to the present time only about four millions have been asked for. This four millions have been asked for. This four millions have been asked for. This four millions due to the West and South, and some of the old national banks in those sections have profited by the recent decision of Secretary Beturell, that banks are entitled to 90 per profited by the recent decision of Secretary Beautwell, that banks are entitled to 90 per cent. circulation on 10-40 bonds deposited, which is an lingrosae of 5 per cent.

The fortheoming report of the Comptroller of the Currency will contain interesting statements concerning the operations of the law enacted at the last sees ion for a distribution of additional currency and for the establishment of gold banks. Only twoof the latter have been established thus far, and but one or two additional applications are pending. The Comptroller's report will also exhibit the condition of all the National banks in the United States at the close of business on the 9th of October.

A young girl of highly respectable family, who has been missing three weeks, and whose whereabouts could not be ascertained by the sharpest detectives, was brought home last night by an old negro woman in a state of high delirium. Powerful medicines were administered and reason was restored for a brief time, during which it was ascertained that the girlind been seduced by a wealthy married man holding a high social positi so; that she had been taken to a disreputable house, where an abortion was performed by two physicians in good standing, and when the smill amount of money, provided by her seducer, had been exhausted, she was sent bome almost a raving maniae. occurrence of any little election fight be-tween partisans drunk or sober, is sufficient to bring from the Commercial the asser

as to life or property, for Union men in Kentucky; that our entire social and political life is an organized and cruel war upon Union men, and that these have no hope but in the armed interference of the Federal Government. It cries out that the laws are not enforced, and when the militia are armed to enforce them, under tion that there is no protection, no safet

al right of our people to bear arms, and threatens them with the interference of the Federal power.
All this may be loyalty, but it is not that loyalty which begues at home; it is not loy-alty to Kentucky. Leaving all charity and generosity out of the question, it is not justice to Kentucky, because it is not even "founded upon facts." Our laws recognize no political distinction between the white ens of Kentucky. The administrators of those laws have made no such distinctions-the Commercial cannot cite single instance. The militia have molested no man of any politics—have not been seen at elections, except under the orders of the civil authorities, and have prevented no man from voting. As to the negroes, they have the United States Courts and Mar have the United States Courts and Marshals to protect them in many cases where equal protection is denied to white men. As to lawless malefactors, there are as many of them in one party as the other; and as to sudden breaches of the peace caused by political dissension, it is sheer represents to law all the preparability for perversity to lay all the responsibility for them on one side when the other side en-gages in them with the same alacrity. to over-ride the will of the majority

These remarks are suggested by the ti-rade which the Commercial pours out con-cerning the arming of the militia in Garrard county, which it pronounces a mili-tary crusade, a partisan attempt "to drive the Republicans from Garrard county and of its legal voters." There is but one hope of upsetting this

Hence it is the most obvious interest of the Democratic party, being in a minority, not only to encourage the division of the enemy, but to shape its own course so liberally as to absorb those moderate elements, which have been hitherto care. so liberally as to absorb those moderate elements which have been hitherto cast

The Memphis Appeal is of a different mind. It has a stomach for sounding periods and resonant flourishes, and, instead of modulating its tone to suit the tempe boisterous, collecting the exploded frag-ments of old campaigns, ramming them into its mortar and shooting them off again lake blank cartridges, without the least aim or hope of effect. It would proselyte no one. It does not desire to procelyte no one. It does not desire to make any converts. It would consolidate, not divide, the Radicals. According to it, one would fancy the Democratic party too strong, instead of weak. It serves its read-ers every day a sort of mush pudding stuffed with adjectives, and expects the Democracy to live on a diet that would very scone mut the days of a sparrow.

The Appeal is doing itself and the Dememploy its forces in a plain and business like way, it could hardly fail to add to its own weight and the weight of its party, for it is not without a certain dash and power that are attractive. Its high-blown talk about treason is not only insincere but vapid. The Democratic party is in no situation to raise up any lofty tests. It is out of power, trying to restore itself to power, and ought to be, and is and will be, thankful for all the aid and comfort it can get, thankful for small favors and for large tavors—thankful for tavors from old friends and old enemies. It can not afford to put on any airs. Its leading idea should be to secure more votes, not to raise up more tests, and particularly such a test as that marked out by the Memphis Ap-

They can not turn it back, though they might fall in and march with it. As it is, they only add to their own absurdity at the same time that they strengthen the hands of the Radicals, who have lived and

The process of ungagging the white voter of the South has commenced, and public opinion will complete it before 1873. Before that time the Sun will see abundan reason for a revision of its classification.

With this idea in mind it strikes as that the Reverend Mr. so-called Repmonents of the South.

A Word With the Beurbons.

The Memphis Appeal is moved by a solemn lear of a new party. It smells treason in every wind that blows. There is no faith in Israel except the faith professed by it, and that faith, as it explained a few weeks ago, is the repeal of the professed by it, and that faith, as it explained a few weeks ago, is the repeal of the green that and that only.

Events are rapidly developing this city as the headquarters of pork as it is of whisky and tobseco. The trade of the South is gradually, but certainly, find-ing its way here and making of Louisville its rendezvous. Our railway facilities, the liberality of our dealers, and the hospitable reception which strangers encounter, account for the unprecedented increase of patronage which has marked each of the last four or five seasons. Wintersmith a Tonte Byrap or improved Chill Cut e—The Most auccessful Fever and Aque Medicine Known—The Reasons of its Superacrity over Other Chill Remedies.

This preparation contains no quining or area into para and deleterious substance whatever, All who have had chills and fever, and have taken quining, caloned or arrently which are the nic, nor any deletrious substance whatever, All who have had chills and fower, and have taken quintine, calomel or arrente which are the principal ingredients of most of the medicines now in use), are aware that the medicines often leave the system in a unbeakty condition, making it more difficult to relieve it of their effects than of the original disease. Wintermith's improved Chill Cure leaves the system in a perfectly healthy condition, with no bad offects in any way to be worse off. Unlike chill remedies generally, its requires no purgative to be taken with it, the medicine itself acting gently and agreeably upon the livre and bowels, effectually removing the cause of the disease, not merely temperarily, checkinr if. Herein consists its great superiority over all other chill preparations. The cure is a permanent one; the chill sull not return periodically, as is the case when broken by quintine and other medicines. Read the two cettificates below:

It was my very though!! I did not sleep a single moment that night. But after all, I could not recede. I was fully committed and must go on with the fight. [In this way I sequired two additional names: "Wain, the Filthy Corruptionist," and "Twan, the Losbisome Embracer."]
By this time there had grown to be such a clamor for an "answer" to all the dreadful charges that were laid to me, that the editors and leaders of my party said it would be particular into from to remain any longer sileut. As if to make their speed the more imperative, the following appeared in one of the papers the very text 43:
